To whom it may concern,

As a highly skilled Data Analyst with several years of experience I am writing to express my interest in the position at your company, I am highly motivated and adaptable person with long-standing background in the industry. With the track record of initiative and dependability, I have devised strategic initiatives which I believe will prove valuable for the company.

Currently working as a Data Analyst Intern at Olive Tree Holdings, NYC. I spend most of my days in collaboration with cross functional teams to formulate best practice solution and execute data analysis projects to build marketing strategies and improving target persona. Additionally, I lead certain scrum meetings and occupancy meetings to analyze user behavior taking some key take ways to design, build report and dashboard. Major Projects:

- Integrate Google Analytics and other data sources with Google Data studio and build different dashboard to gain insights from the google data in 3 simple steps. This has help company in saving time and cost on manual process and its flexible to use any one can use that report to measure different key performance indicators.
- Identify the pattern in occupancy in a year by doing a benchmarking occupancy historical data to get insights on the maximum leads and move-in achieved and how can we build/ plan strategies form both marketing and asset management view point to increase the occupancy in coming years.

I am graduating this winter (December 2021) with a Master's in Management of Information Systems (MIS) majoring in Business Analytics. After graduation I am looking to start my career with a prestigious company like yours and give my best effort to improve performance of the projects I will be working on. In my pervious role at BNY Mellon - Pune, India, for 3 years as a Process Analyst. I have a head for figures within the data and work on tight deadlines. I have developed my ability to quickly learn and assimilate business and technical knowledge with impressive organizational skills and the ability to carry out multiple streams of work concurrently in a flexible and fast-paced environment. I see myself as an innovative team-players with exceptional analytical and collaboration skills. I developed the ability to collaborate by excelling in extra-curricular activities in which teamwork is crucial.

The prospect of working for your company genuinely excites me, and I would like to come in for a structured interview as soon as possible. I look forward to hearing more specific details about the position and appreciate your consideration. Please accept the enclosed resume and feel free to contact me at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,
Anchal Bhamore
